Dear Mr. Klitzman,

I am writing to you regarding the regulations still being drawn up by the FCC to enforce the public law, the Cable Television Consumer Protection Act.

I have enclosed a letter from a constituent, Mr. John H. Luby, who has voiced his concerns about the service and costs of the cable being offered in his area. I would appreciate it if you would keep his views in mind as you decide on the final language of the regulations due to be released in April.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Ben Nighthorse Campbell

The Honorable Ben Campbell

Dear Senator Campbell

Enclosed is a copy of a letter complaining of bad TV for more money every year.

I did not state that today my monthly cost is $34 (Basic $23.10 plus Showtime $9.95 plus the guide $.95 that was free when I started) and seven years ago it was $10.00 for just Basic.

Of course, I can watch TV and get four local channels for free with a very good picture; but, no CNN or C-Span which even Iraq can see.

The service man has moved from in town to 60 miles away and they may move him even further away.

I could call about the service every day, but that gets old.

Sincerely

John H. Luby
